In 2003, a new logo was introduced to represent the company: it consisted of a white capital letter "O" on a black background. The logo underwent several changes under various visual design changes during this period. The "O" was sundered into two smaller, green squares with rounded bottoms that closely resembled the shape of the letter "L", which remained in use until 2010. In 2009, ROBLOX released an entirely new logo based on the previous one: this iteration featured a black capitalized "R" on a white background. It was designed to feature the company's name without any visual association to the original logo. The previous logo is still in use today, albeit with a thicker frame.

The territory restriction on new accounts for "TERA" was lifted in June 2012. At that time, players were also given a free transfer to a North American account. In February 2015, En Masse Entertainment announced plans to merge servers for "TERA" and also announced additional details about Season 2 of "TERA: Rising". The merger began on March 11 with servers down for two hours beginning at 5 am Pacific Time (8:00 UTC). This was followed by two more short downtimes on March 17 and March 26 before all character transfers were completed. The merger of servers resulted in the creation of a single player vs. player server and a single role-playing server. The role-playing server was created to stop the underpopulated game world from splitting into two more servers.[62]
